Position Overview

The primary purpose of this position is to scope, plan and implement Australian Curriculum development projects. The position is accountable for producing curriculum materials which requires engagement with stakeholder groups that include multi-jurisdiction education authorities and community groups. The position holder needs to plan and manage individual projects, identify and liaise with key stakeholders, manage consultation and review processes, and proactively communicate and manage expectations.

The Senior Project Officer needs to work effectively with a range of ACARA colleagues within and beyond the Curriculum Business Unit to ensure project outcomes are delivered on time, within budget and to the required quality standard.

Core accountabilities

1. Comply with and promote WHS practices, policies and procedures and conduct work in a safe manner
2. Commit to, promote and model ACARA’s policies including those relating to equity, diversity and sustainability in addition to ACARA’s Values and Code of Conduct
3. Participate in and promote the performance and recognition program, including setting objectives, tracking objectives and appraising outcomes
4. Work collaboratively within the business unit and across the organisation to promote communication and information sharing

Key accountabilities

The key accountabilities of this position relate to English and include:

1. Managing the design, development, implementation support and monitoring and evaluation of discrete F-12 curriculum projects, including reviewing and editing draft documents
2. Liaison with stakeholders in relation to curriculum development, assessment and related issues
3. Supervision of and liaison with curriculum writers, other contractors and advisory panels.
4. Conduct of research on curriculum and assessment policies and practices
5. Provision of support to managers and the executive on a range of issues in relation to curriculum projects including preparation of reports, briefings and advice and executive support to advisory groups
6. Organisation of and participation in national curriculum forums and workshops, including presentation of information about the Australian Curriculum to a range of audiences
7. Contribution to higher effectiveness levels for the team by identifying, developing, and maintaining an appropriate network of internal and external contacts
8. Ensuring that business relationships are maintained at an agreed level by developing, implementing, and maintaining a quality oriented, timely, and service-focussed approach in work programs and services.

9. Undertaking other duties related to curriculum initiatives and priorities as required.

Skills, Knowledge and Experience (Key Selection Criteria)

1. Significant knowledge of relevant F-12 curriculum and assessment in English, including general capabilities and cross-curriculum priorities.

2. Extensive successful curriculum development expertise.

3. A strong understanding of education and policy reform initiatives within the national education landscape.

4. High level interpersonal, written and verbal communication skills.

5. Strong organisational capability and a proven record of success in the full life cycle of project management, including the ability to deal with wide-ranging and complex issues within tight timeframes to required quality.

6. Strong networking, liaison, consultation and representation skills and the ability and commitment to interact effectively with key stakeholders and to work in collaboration with Curriculum staff on cross-unit projects.

7. High level conceptual and analytical skills, including the ability to undertake research, prepare reports and provide strategic advice to senior management.
